

About the Organization

Vision: a vibrant community that transforms conflict through conversation.

Mission: To transform conflict and build community through face-to-face dialogue programs.

Through time-tested dialogue methods, Advoz equips our community to constructively handle conflicts, violence and crime. With more than 30 years of experience serving approximately 750 residents, businesses, and organizations each year, Advoz enhances communication, accountability and mindfulness, empowering all parties in a conflict or crime, even offenders and victims, to mend broken relationships; promote peaceful resolution; and build stronger, safer communities.

Together, we can:

- Mediate resolution of challenging situations among families, neighbors, and institutions.
- Facilitate healing of youth and adults who may have either harmed or been harmed by violence and/or crime.
- Train teachers, counselors, and administrators in restorative justice practices as an inclusive approach to discipline and community building.

Services:

- Mediation
 - Divorce/child custody
 - Elder/caregiver
 - Home and property
 - Perpetrator/victim
 - Family disputes
 - Business and workplace
 - And more
- Restorative Justice
 - Victim-offender conferencing
 - Circle processes
 - Making Peace student-parent workshops

Internship Details

Advoz has a small staff and a large base of volunteers, so as an intern with Advoz you would have the opportunity to be involved in a variety of things, from trainings and mediation to networking and event planning, based on your skill set and experience with restorative justice and conflict mediation.
